

Collegiate Handball

at

 Minnesota State University MANKATO

Sign up for handball news

Handball

- Tuition, Academic, and Handball Scholarships are available
- Handball players are eligible for in-state tuition and priority registration
- Opportunities to be a teaching assistant for handball classes
- Multiple All-Americans, individual national champions, and team national championships
- Coached by USHA and WPH certified instructors

Contact Information

Contact a coach if interested:

Mike Wells—Head Coach
michael.wells@mnsu.edu
(507) 420-6230

John Stoffel—Assistant Coach
john.stoffel@alorus.com
(612) 590-1753

Fast Facts

- Minnesota State University, Mankato has more than 14,000 students, including more than 1,170 international students from 89 countries
- Annual tuition and fees: $8,566 (in-state)
- 130 majors
- Student-faculty ratio at Minnesota State University, Mankato is 22:1
- 37.3% of classes have fewer than 20 students.
- Located 85 miles southwest of the Twins Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. Minnesota State Mankato sits atop 303 acres overlooking the Minnesota River Valley. The Greater Mankato area has a population of 101,927.
- Go to www.mnsu.edu to learn more!

Go to www.mnsu.edu/apply to submit an application

MINNESOTA STATE

Minnesota State University, Mankato
A member of Minnesota State